

Once in a lifetime dreams become real with the attention of our wedding maitre'd's. Your stress will disappear knowing all the details are being meticulously cared for. She will be there when you coordinate all your final details before your wedding. On the day of your wedding she will make sure that all those details are carried through by our team at the hotel.

Upon arrival, she will be standing right inside the door to take you to your pre-bridal room to get you ready to greet your guests. From the moment you meet her until the end of the evening, she will be there for you, your husband and your families. This is a service that we provide unlike any you will see, because we are proud to have such dedicated and passionate ladies working for us in this capacity.

Thank you for Choosing the Waterford Ballrooms at the Park Inn West